

The VECCS Distinguished Service Award is named for Ira M. Zaslow, one of the founding fathers of VECCS and ACVECC. Since the early 1970's, Dr. Zaslow has worked tirelessly to develop and spearhead the advancement of veterinary emergency and critical care. His commitment, dedication, vision, and service to the organization are legendary and unsurpassed. Through his original efforts, VECCS and ACVECC have become prominent veterinary organizations and IVECCS has become a world-renowned international symposium.
